As provided in the attached Order, Defendant R.F. Technologies, Inc. ("RFT"), Defendant Babak Noorian, and attorney Thomas

		O'Leary of the LeClairRyan, LLP law firm, are subject to sanctions under Fed. R. Civ. P. 26(g). Defendant RFT, the law firm of LeClairRyan, LLP and attorney Thomas O'Leary are subject to sanctions under Rule 37. All reasonable attorney's fees and costs incurred by Plaintiff in collecting discovery from Defendants beginning on October 18, 2013, the date of the first false discovery certifications and responses, are recoverable as sanctions. A final Order with the actual amount and the apportionment of the sanctions will be issued following submission by Plaintiff of a statement of fees and costs together with supporting documentation and declarations as required by law. Plaintiff is to submit this information, in the form of a motion for fees and costs, no later than August 24, 2015. Defendants may respond no later than September 8, 2015. The Court will set the matter for hearing, if appropriate, after reviewing the papers. The Court DENIES Plaintiff's Motion insofar as it requests that this Court certify a finding of civil contempt. The Court also GRANTS Plaintiff's Motion insofar as it requests that this Court RECOMMEND to the district court, in the event this case proceeds to trial, that the district court instruct the jury that certain facts shall be deemed admitted and provide an adverse inference instruction to the jury. Objections to this Recommendation must be filed within 14 days of notification to the Court that the noticed settlement of this action will not be consummated. Signed by Magistrate Judge Mitchell D.
